

provides, inter alia, for the appointment of a Special Master to oversee the distribution of $975 million in restitution (the “Restitution Funds”) that Takata agreed to pay to designated claimants, including auto manufacturers (the “OEMs”) and individuals with personal injuries.¹ This proposed fifteenth distribution addresses only the restitution to individuals under the Individual Restitution Fund (defined below).

Contemporaneously with the acceptance of the Plea Agreement, the Court entered the Restitution Order [Docket No. 24] (the “Restitution Order”) requiring Takata to, among other things, pay $125 million in restitution to individuals who suffered (or will suffer) personal injury caused by the malfunction of a Takata airbag inflator, and who have not already resolved their claims against Takata (the “Individual Restitution Fund” or “IRF”).

Pursuant to the Plea Agreement, on July 31, 2017, the Court entered an order appointing Eric D. Green as Special Master of the Takata Restitution Funds (the “Appointment Order”) [Docket No. 40] to administer the Individual Restitution Fund (as well as the OEM Restitution Fund). Pursuant to paragraph 2 of the Appointment Order, the Special Master’s responsibilities include, inter alia, establishing procedures, subject to Court approval, to determine eligible claimants and the amount of loss eligible for compensation, developing a formula or formulas, subject to Court approval, for distributing funds to eligible claimants, making determinations regarding allowed claims, and making a recommendation to the Court regarding allocation of funds from the Individual Restitution Fund.

A. The Revised IRF Methodology.

On March 21, 2018, the Court entered an order approving the Special Master’s proposed approach to distributing the funds in the IRF (the “Revised IRF Methodology”).² The Revised IRF Methodology sets forth the requirements for qualifying as an Eligible Claimant³ and divides eligible claims into two categories: (i) “Current Claims” filed with the Special Master by August 31, 2018; and (ii) “Future Claims”⁴ filed after August 31, 2018. Under the Revised IRF

² Order Granting Special Master’s Request for Approval of the Revised Individual Restitution Fund Methodology [Docket No. 77] and Overruling Defendant’s Objection [Docket No. 78] (the “IRF Methodology Order”).

Methodology, a portion of the IRF is allocated to Current Claims and the balance is reserved for Future Claims based on estimations of Current and Future Claims conducted by NERA.

Given that the estimated value of all anticipated Current and Future Claims far exceeds the $125 million in the Individual Restitution Fund, the Special Master decided to utilize a relative valuation approach to determine awards to Eligible Claimants. Under this approach, points are assigned to claims based on injury categories in an injury valuation matrix and certain other factors, and then the points assigned to each claim are converted to a monetary award based on the number and value of allowed claims and the funds available. Future Claims are valued and paid under the same procedures as Current Claims. In the event that there are fewer Future Claims than estimated, unused funds will be distributed to all eligible claimants on a proportional basis.

On February 4, 2021, the Special Master moved the Court to modify the Revised IRF Methodology and the points schedule incorporated therein [Docket No. 138] (the “Points Modification Motion”) to more equitably compensate personal injury victims. On February 26, 2021, the Court entered an order approving the Points Modification Motion [Docket No. 140].

B. The Claim Forms and Notice Program.

On May 29, 2018, the Special Master obtained Court approval of the following in connection with the IRF: (i) the Notice Program; (ii) the Personal Injury Claim Form; (iii) the Wrongful Death Claim Form; (iv) the lists of required supporting documentation; (v) the Notice of Claim Form, which enables claimants to timely file but defer consideration of their claim; and (vi) the HIPAA Release.⁵

The next day, May 30, 2018, the Special Master launched the targeted Notice Program for the IRF, including direct notification through mail and email, indirect notice through international publication and a press release, and various types of online media. With respect to the direct notification, the Claims Administrator mailed a claim package consisting of a direct notice, claim forms, supporting documentation checklists, and a notice of claim. This targeted notice supplemented the notice program in the U.S. Bankruptcy Proceedings, which was designed to reach approximately 83 million past and present registered owners of a vehicle containing a Takata PSAN Inflator. Subsequently, the Special Master has received, evaluated, processed, and paid claims pursuant to the IRF Methodology upon receiving Court approval in response to periodic distribution requests.

⁵ Order Granting Special Master's Request for Approval of Individual Restitution Fund Claim Forms, Notice Program, and Extension of Current Claims Filing Deadline, dated May 29, 2018 [Docket No. 94].

C. Fourteenth Distribution Request.

Recently, on March 25, 2022, the Special Master filed the Special Master's Request for Approval of Fourteenth Distribution of Individual Restitution Fund [Docket No. 163] (the "Fourteenth IRF Distribution Request"). In the Fourteenth IRF Distribution Request, the Special Master indicated that he evaluated each Claim, determined whether such claims were eligible for compensation from the IRF, and, if eligible, assigned a point value to each claim. In total, after all internal reviews and appeals, 7,765 points were awarded to those Claimants. On May 9, 2022, the Court entered its Order Granting Special Master's Request for Approval of Fourteenth Distribution of Individual Restitution Fund (the "Fourteenth Request Order") [Docket No. 165].

D. The Evaluation of Claims Subject to Fifteenth Distribution Request.

Since entry of the Fourteenth Request Order, the Special Master has administered, reviewed, analyzed, and evaluated eleven (11) additional Claims. The purpose of this Request is to seek the Court's approval of the Special Master's determinations for these Claims.

Epiq, under the Special Master's supervision, reviewed each of the eleven (11) Claims: (i) for facial deficiencies, such as a missing signature, lack of basic documentation, or failure to supply required information; and (ii) for more substantive deficiencies, such as failure to supply evidence of a rupture or aggressive deployment. If deficiencies were identified by Epiq, then deficiency notices were sent out to those claimants, or their attorneys, identifying the deficiencies and requesting supplementation within the cure period set forth in the Revised IRF Methodology.

Once a Claim was deemed complete, it was evaluated by staff at Epiq, reviewed by senior management at Epiq according to criteria developed and specified by the Special Master, and then sent to the Special Master for final review and determination.

Ultimately, of these eleven (11) Claims, the Special Master and his team determined that five (5) of the Claims are eligible for compensation and six (6) of the Claims are ineligible for compensation.

With respect to the six (6) ineligible Claims, they were determined to be ineligible for one of the following reasons: (i) for two (2) of the Claims, a Takata airbag was not installed in the subject vehicle; (ii) two (2) of the Claims failed to provide sufficient evidence of rupture; (iii) for one (1) of the Claims, it was determined that the injury was caused by a non-Takata airbag even though an eligible airbag was installed in the subject vehicle; and (iv) for one (1) of the Claims, the eligible Takata airbag did not deploy.

For each of the five (5) eligible Claims, the Special Master, with the assistance of his advisors, finalized the point awards following both an initial evaluation and additional review sessions to ensure that each eligible Claim was treated fairly and equitably.

i. Notice of Award or Denial.

Next, the Special Master sent either award or denial letters to the twelve (12) Claimants, as applicable, notifying them of the Special Master's determination and, if eligible, their proposed point award. Award letters included the number of points that each Claimant had been awarded, as well as the dollar value of a point and the dollar value of their Claim. The denial letters that were sent to ineligible Claimants notified the Claimants of the basis of the Special Master's determination.

ii. Appeal Process.

Upon receipt of the award or denial letter, Claimants were provided the opportunity to appeal the Special Master's determination through the internal appeals process set forth in the Revised IRF Methodology. Claimants could initiate an appeal by filing a Notice of Appeal with the Special Master within thirty (30) days of receipt of the determination letter (the "Appeal Deadline"). Prior to the expiration of the Appeal Deadline, the Special Master received: (i) two (2) Notices of Appeal regarding a determination of ineligibility, and (ii) two (2) Notices of Appeal regarding valuation.

As directed in the Revised IRF Methodology, randomly assigned Review Officers then re-examined the four (4) claims for which a Notice of Appeal was filed and made a recommendation to the Special Master with respect to each reviewed Claim. The Review Officers affirmed the Special Master's award for the two (2) valuation appeals and affirmed the Special Master's determination for one (1) of the ineligibility appeals.

For one (1) ineligibility appeal the Review Officer recommended additional review. The Special Master had initially denied this claim, finding that the claimant failed to provide sufficient proof of rupture. The Review Officer observed that photographs of the claimant's injuries appear to be consistent with a rupture event and that a photograph of the interior of the vehicle may be consistent with a rupture. The Special Master adopted the Reviewer's recommendation and conducted additional review. As part of this additional review, the Special Master re-evaluated the evidence provided by the Claimant, including the photographs of the interior of the vehicle and of Claimant's injuries cited by the Review Officer. The Special Master also sought the and found it insufficient to support a rupture and that the injuries documented were also not consistent with an inflator rupture. The Special Master also sought the opinion of the IRF's airbag expert, Dr. Harold Blomquist, on whether the claim materials provided evidence of rupture. Dr. Blomquist agreed with the Special Master's determination that the evidence was inadequate to demonstrate that the subject airbag inflator ruptured. In addition, careful and close re-examination of the accident and injury photographs, giving the Claimant the benefit of the doubt, did not provide evidence of an airbag rupture. As a result, the Special Master affirmed the ineligibility determination. The Special Master's recommendation to the Court with respect to each appeal is contained in Exhibit C.

II. Fifteenth Distribution Request.

A. Claims Determinations.

In accordance with the Court-approved Revised IRF Methodology, the Special Master has evaluated each Claim, determined whether it is eligible for compensation from the IRF, and, if eligible, assigned a point value. In total, after all internal reviews and appeals, 2,915 points were awarded for the five (5) eligible Claims. In accordance with the proposed Fifteenth Request Order, the value of a point is currently set at $178 for two (2) eligible Claims filed prior to 2021, $182 for two (2) eligible Claims filed in 2021, and $191 for one (1) eligible claim filed in 2022.⁶ Accordingly, the Special Master recommends that $532,670.00 be distributed to the Claimants included in this proposed distribution.

Attached hereto as Exhibit A is a chart of the five (5) Claims determined to be eligible for compensation, the points awarded to each Claim, and the corresponding monetary value of each point award, based on the proposed dollar value of a point. Attached hereto as Exhibit B is a chart reflecting the six (6) Claims determined to be ineligible for compensation, organized by basis for denial. Attached hereto as Exhibit C is a chart reflecting the claims that were subject to internal appeal and the corresponding dispositions. The names of the claimants in each exhibit are removed to protect each Claimant's personal information.

The Special Master recommends that the Court approve the Claimants listed on Exhibit A as Eligible Claimants and the distribution of the monetary awards listed on Exhibit A to these Claimants. The Special Master further recommends that the Court approve the denial of the Claims listed on Exhibit B.

B. Releases.

The Court previously approved conditioning payment from the IRF on the execution and submission of a release to the Special Master. See IRF Methodology Order. In addition, the Court ordered that attorney's fees for Claims may not exceed twenty-five percent 25% of an award, except for good cause shown as to why the permissible attorney's fees portion of an award should be upwardly adjusted. See id., at Section VII(I). The Special Master recommends requiring that, as a condition for payment from the IRF to any individual represented by counsel, counsel must execute a rider to the release acknowledging and agreeing to abide by the restriction on attorney's fees set forth in the IRF Methodology Order.

C. Notice And Objections.

Consistent with the procedures set forth in the Minutes of July 25, 2019 Conference with Special Master [Docket No. 110] (attached hereto as Exhibit D), the Special Master will notify Claimants: (i) of their point award and the monetary value of the award (if any); (ii) of the filing of this Request; and (iii) that they may object to the Request by submitting a written response to the Special Master on or before June 20, 2022 (the “Objection Deadline”). Shortly following the Objection Deadline, the Special Master will confer with the Court and file with the Court in the miscellaneous case docket a supplemental filing providing further information with (i) a brief background materials as to the claims for which Notices of Appeal were filed, the recommendations of the independent third-party Review Officers with respect to those appeals, and the Special Master’s recommendations as to same; and (ii) any objections filed on or before June 20, 2022 as permitted in the Request and the Special Master’s recommendation with respect to any such objections. Following that submission and any further meeting or request of the Court, the Special Master will request that the Court enter an order approving this Request.

CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, the Special Master requests that the Court enter an order substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit E approving: (a) the distribution to Claimants as set forth on Exhibit A hereto; (b) the determination that the claims of the Claimants set forth on Exhibit B are ineligible for compensation from the Individual Restitution Fund; and (c) conditioning payment from the IRF to individuals represented by counsel on execution of a rider by counsel acknowledging and agreeing to abide by the restriction on attorney's fees set forth in the IRF Methodology Order.

MINUTES OF JULY 25, 2019 CONFERENCE WITH SPECIAL MASTER

On July 25, 2019, Special Master Eric D. Green conferred with the Court to discuss the substantial progress made in evaluating Current Claims. The Special Master reported that he and his team of professionals have nearly completed the Current Claims evaluation process, including the initial evaluation of each Current Claim, provision of notice of initial determinations and the opportunity to appeal, the re-examination of claims on appeal by the Review Officers, and the Special Master’s consideration of the recommendations of the Review Officers, all in accordance with the revised IRF Methodology approved by the Court on March 21, 2018 (Doc. 78). The Court and the Special Master then discussed the process for obtaining court approval of Current Claim dispositions and the final dollar value of a point. After conferring with the Special Master, the Court considered and approved the following procedure and timeline:

amended by the Special Master. Following approval by the Court, the Special Master shall commence the distribution process to eligible Claimants.
